"Larryisms" ...

"May the Lord make His face shine on you and be gracious to you."
Numbers 6:25

When I look at you, I see greatness because during the years to come, you will be the face of God that others will see.

"Be strong and courageous. Do not be terrified; do not be discouraged, for the Lord your God will be with you wherever you go." Joshua 1:9

Sure, you've made a mistake, but you can do better next time. You can choose to be strong. I believe in you.

"Delight yourself in the Lord and He will give you the desires of your heart." 1 John 1:7

Live with a purpose. When Christ is your top priority, other things will fall into their proper place.

REMEMBERING LARRY

Larry Olson, beloved Women's Basketball Coach, Johnson Hall Supervisor, and Cross-Country Coach, died Thursday, April 9, 2015, after a year long struggle with leukemia. Known for his quick wit and positive attitude, Larry contributed to every aspect of student life on campus. His love for the students and the time he invested in their lives made it natural for them to shower him with appreciation and respect. Larry arrived on campus in 2008 to serve as the Women's Basketball Coach. Within a year, he and his wife, Beverly, moved into Johnson Hall as the Residence Hall Supervisors and became surrogate parents to the 80+ young men who lived there each year. Together, Larry and Bev fostered a supportive family atmosphere for all of the residents. Larry added the responsibilities of Cross Country Coach in 2010 when the college added a varsity program for both men and women. Coach Olson expected the best from himself and everyone he worked with. His athletes understood the high standards he had set for them in the classroom as well as in competition. When recruiting, he looked for Christian leaders who understood teamwork. This philosophy proved successful in 2013 and 2014 when the National Christian College Athletic Association recognized his as Women's Basketball National Coach of the Year.

Rest in truth of who you really are. Do you get up in the morning, look in the mirror, and say, "Wow, God, what a fantastic person you've made?" I am unique, I am precious, I don't look like anyone else. I refuse to compare myself to trivial commercial images. Choose to believe what God says about you, instead of what the world implies. Say, "I want to be your man or your woman. I want to be part of the solution. Use me." Know that you are special, valuable, and awesome to God.

Whatever might come your way, God knows and cares like no one else.

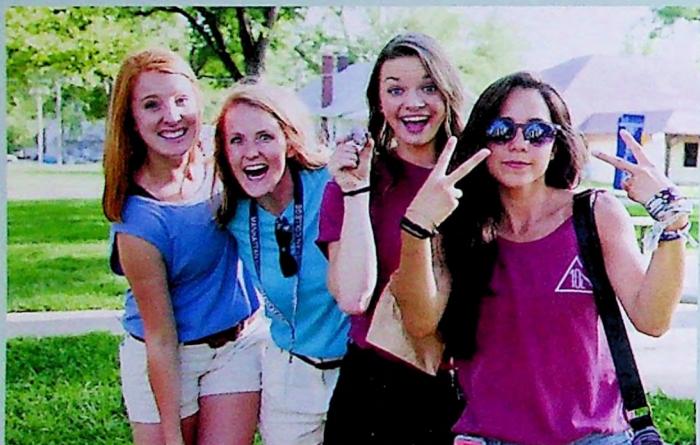

I can't wait to see what God is going to do today.

Whenever you speak to someone, decide to breathe life into them with your words of encouragement.

Bryan Gilbert takes on the challenge of a milk-chugging competition during the Johnson Hall Olympics.

WELCOME WEEKEND

Everyone knows the importance of a good first impression, so it is only fitting that the first weekend new students arrive on campus they are showered in fun activities, meeting new friends, and time spent in God's Word. Although the first week of college can be overwhelming, the first weekend should be packed with excitement and fun! After getting everything moved into the residence halls, students and their parents listened to a message from President Ingram and were given a time to pray together. Students were also invited to partake in dorm games, a scavenger hunt, bowling at Kansas State University, and a faculty/staff vs. student softball game at Anneberg Park.

Students storm the field in celebration after winning the faculty/staff vs student softball game for the first time in years.

BARN PARTY

Barn Party is an annual costume party thrown by the Campus Program Council. This year it was held at Lazy T Ranch outside of Manhattan. The party consisted of crazy dancing, delicious food and many great memories. While many great and creative costumes made an appearance at the party, only a handful won a special honor.

Best Individual: Brady Field as Elliot from ET. Best Couple: Rachel Riedy & Dalton Mitchell as backpackers.

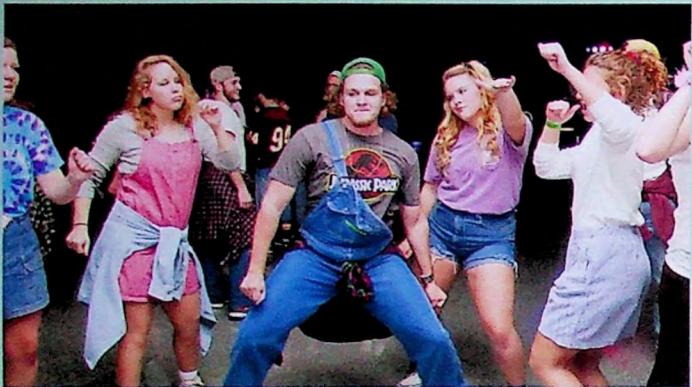

Best Groups: DeeDee Guthrie, Leigh Ann Maurath and Kendall Reynolds as Dunkin' Donuts and Kyla Wolkow, Cameron Dunn, Kaylee Wedel, Kylie Rupe and Michelle Kejr as characters from the movie Frozen.

Krysten Purkey takes her performance of Spice Girls hits very seriously. With this fan as her number one prop for the evening she had the crowd screaming, laughing and joining along. She has our vote for "break through artist of the year" any day.

These ladies really know how to take it back. Wynette Sommerfield, Hannah Schmitt, Jaci Crist, and Kendall Reynolds break out some of Kendall's mom's old bridesmaids dresses for an on point depiction of 1990's formal swagger.

WINTER BANQUET

The dream of 90's was very much alive in Manhattan for this year's winter banquet. From the food to the decorations and most certainly the catchy tunes, nostalgia was at an all-time high for these college students. This night was by far one of the most wild and memorable events for partying "like it's 1999." The decade that is most known as our first years of childhood was relived on this evening with popular music from the era playing throughout the night and table decor that was sure to catch the eye. It was easy to reminisce on the good old days, when life mostly consisted of all things boy band, MASH, Lisa Frank, snap bracelets, pop rocks and walkmans. These awesome guests made the night worth sticking in a time capsule and revisiting again!

Courtney Deist is fully accesorized with slap bracelets.

Spenser Allen comes prepared with his fanny pack to dance the night away.

The soccer team helped at Shepherd's Crossing by doing a few house cleaning projects.

Julia Neubert helped at Life Choice Ministries, and said, "It feels great to give back."

Noel Brooks, LeAnne Fox, Lindsey Beven, and Tim Clark sort food at Flint Hills Breadbasket. LeAnne said, "I had fun being with friends and helping out."

Wynnette Sommerfeld and Lauren Smith fold clothes during their time volunteering.

KD: COMMUNITY

Kerusso Dayz: Community is a chance for students, faculty and staff to give back to the Manhattan community. This week of projects is a good opportunity for the institution to serve our campus neighbors while also having fun with friends. This year students served at Life Choice Ministries, Shepherd's Crossing, Big Brothers and Big Sisters, Flint Hills Breadbasket, Re-Store

Habitat for Humanity, Boys and Girls Club of Manhattan.

Dani Denver helps out by folding donation clothes.

KD: SPRING BREAK

For Kerusso Dayz 2015, a group of students went to Puerto Penasco, Mexico, to help the organization i6eight. For three days the team worked on building a house for a woman who had previously been living with her daughter, son in law and two children. The family and everyone who worked on the house participated in the house dedication ceremony. Bible verses were read and everyone worshipped- both in English and Spanish. It was a beautiful moment. That night, i6eight took the team to an orphanage and they all played with the kids and had a barbecue. The team poured into the kids' lives and everyone had such a great time. The last day in Mexico, the team spent half of the day painting houses, then had an afternoon off at the beach. For dinner, the leaders of i6eight took the whole team out to a special dinner. Pouring into the people of Mexico was such a special experience for everyone. Despite the language barrier, relationships were built and it was a trip everyone will remember forever. It was amazing being able to see God move in both the lives of the people serving and the people being served. Mexico was a very rewarding experience for all parties involved.

The students are excited and ready to get on the road to Mexico.

Austin Lovelace, Collin Schlotfeldt, Collin Nitcher, and Grant Foard form a new boy band while in Mexico.

Emmalie Hurla, Courtney Deist, Ashlyn Stoll, Alexa Murphy, Veronica Hernandez and Hannah Schmitt soak up the sun while enjoying the festivities of MCC's greatly appreciated annual Skip Day!

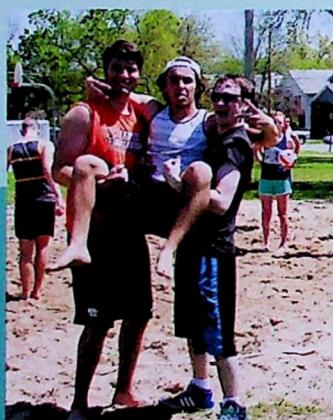

Dacia Whiteley, Kylee Diederich, Rachel Strong and Melanie Montgomery pose for a cute picture while cheering on their peers in the sand volleyball tournament!

There was some intense competition in our first ever Zorb soccer game! There were some bodies slammed, rolled, and rolled some more. It was fun for everyone!

Great display of concentration from Sam Heryford, along with some back up from teammates Wynnette Sommerfeld and Cameron Dunn.

Skip Day

Skip Day here at Manhattan Christian College is something that everyone cherishes. For the students, it is a much needed break in times of heavy work loads. For teachers, it is a day off from grading those heavy work loads! There is something for each member of the MCC family! This year's festivities included Chick-Fil-A breakfast, egg toss contest, sand volleyball tournament, 3-on-3 basketball tournament, Zorb soccer, and our annual BBQ. After that was all cleared, we had a movie night with salty popcorn and sugary sno-kones. Skip Day is a great way to kick off the beautiful weather of spring and reenergize the students to finish the school year strong! This year was nothing short of a day very well spent!

Lauren Smith caught in the act of some very impressive longboarding!

Joel Rice and Jordan Drapal are the first on the dance floor to get the party started.

Matthew Doerksen hoists Josh McCrickard on his shoulders.

SPRING BANQUET

Spring Banquet did not disappoint. Beautiful location, good food, yummy cupcakes, hilarious videos, and amazing dancing. This year we celebrated Spring Banquet on the top floor of the new Bluemont Hotel. Attendees enjoyed the balcony with lovely views and fabulous spring weather. Once dinner was over, everyone was entertained with the annual Spring Banquet videos. The top three videos were: Joyce Bruce and Rebekah Zwink with "Crazy Roommate," Gideon battis and Joshua Bird with "Waffles," and the winning video was Brady Field's Small Group with "The Climb."

Krysten Purkey and Chloe Miller spent many years perfecting the Wobble.

Tim Clark makes his way to the center of the dance floor.

STUDENT DEVELOPMENT

The Student Development staff exists for the students. The primary role of this department is to provide life changing experiences through residence hall living, chapel services, intramurals, small groups, Student Government, and many other ministries and activities. Some of the favorite activities include Break Away, which happens the first Friday of each month and World Series, Super Bowl, and Final Four watch parties. These events allow students to take a break from school work and enjoy fellowship.

Tommy Stegmaier gets creative and makes his own Royals shirt for the World Series party.

Cole Wilson and Nick Brown help as admissions and camp team help set up for Timothy Days.

ADMISSIONS

The admissions crew represents MCC in a variety of ways through various events. When they are not in the office, hard at work, they're giving campus tours, sending camp teams to Christian camps around the country, going to college fairs at high schools and putting on big events such as Oasis and Timothy Days. The 2014-15 Admissions team consists of Nick Brown, Teka Wilson, Robyn Kejr, Trent McGee, Kaitlyn Black, Kyla Wolkow, Sarah Wenger and Ethan Pope. This staff works very hard to make sure that high school students across the country have everything they need to know about MCC and what our institution has to offer.

President Kevin Ingram enjoys golfing with MCC supporters Howard Wilson and Don Wilson. The 15th Annual Golf Classic attracted 135 alumni and friends of the college to play golf and raise funds for the annual fund.

Director of Institutional Advancement Jolene Rupe shares a moment during Women's World with dear friend Pam Speer.

INSTITUTIONAL ADVANCEMENT

The Institutional Advancement Office promotes and advances the mission of the college by enlisting financial support and ministry involvement from alumni, donors, churches, the Manhattan community, faculty, staff, and students. Throughout the year they organize a variety of leadership training events, conferences, communication pieces, and informational 101 lunches, and celebration banquets to help tell the MCC story and the impact our college is making around the world.

THANKFUL THUNDER DAY

The MCC community coming together to celebrate our donor

Over 350 people came together for the Vision 360 Banquet. President Kevin Ingram shared highlights from the past, present, and future of the college.

Thankful Thunder Day is a new tradition to celebrate the donors of the college and the impact that they have on everyday campus life. Elizabeth Fowler, Lorraine Murphy, Rosa Johnson express their thanks.

Camp Team Members Cole Wilson, Ashlyn Stoll, and Jeffrey Wejman pray for each other and other summer ministries during a chapel service.

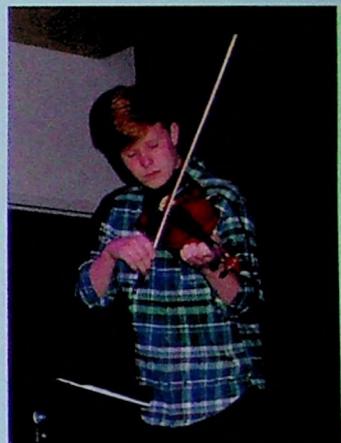

Logan Pittman using one of her many musical gifts in leading chapel worship.

CHAPEL

Chapel is the one time each week the entire campus comes together to fellowship, worship, and hear the Good News. Each Thursday, the faculty, staff, and student body gather in Jolliffe Hall to hear their fellow students lead them in worship and listen to a variety of speakers talk about our theme for the year...Simply Jesus. The goal of the year's theme was to take a look at life and answer the question, "What does it look like to live in such a way to simply rely on Jesus?" We were challenged by dynamic speakers who encouraged us to grow deeper in our faith.

Matthew Lundy shares his violin playing talent during a chapel service.

KENOYER HALL

Kenoyer Hall is the women's residence hall of Manhattan Christian College. The girls reside in suites of seven to eight girls and a Resident Assistant. The suites and rooms of "Kenoy-noy" are always full of entertainment. Whether it's mattress surfing down the stairs, or face painting at two in the morning, there is never a dull moment in this place.

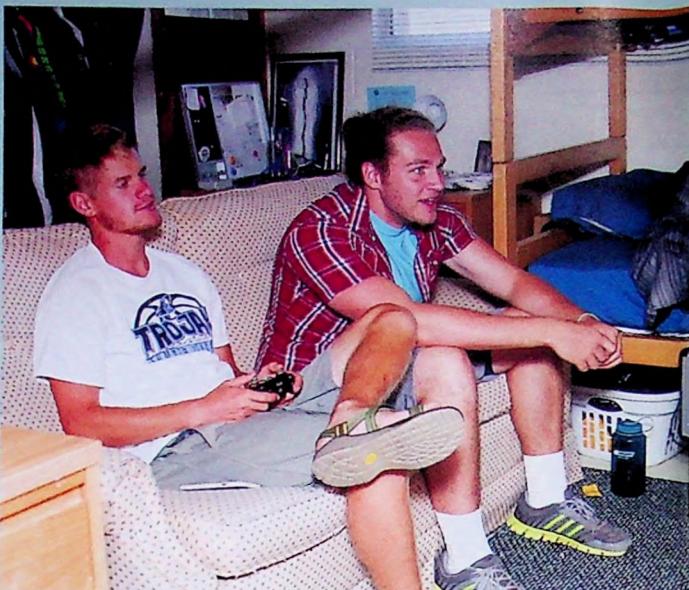

This school year we welcomed the wonderful Robyn Kejr into the position of Residence Hall Supervisor. She prayerfully, intentionally, and humbly took on the role of Mom-away-from-Mom for these beautiful girls pictured below. This year in Kenoyer Hall has been one of depth, trial and growth and we thank God for each one of the friendships made and strengthened here.

Asa Lee and Austin Fuller do their best in the wheelbarrow race during Dorm Olympics.

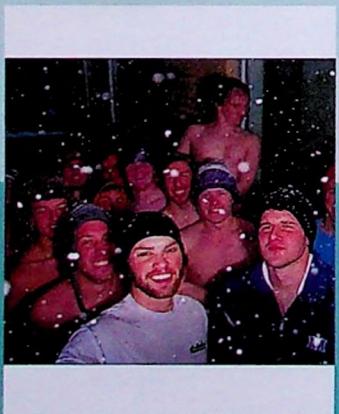

Jesse Roesch and Tanner Woolf are engaged in a tense game.

Dominic Puccio and Riley Corbin use time in the dorm to research new music.

The men of Johnson Hall participate in the annual shirtless run around city park.

Eli Gould competes in the milk challenge during dorm olympics.

JOHNSON HALL

The school year started off right...chugging a gallon of milk, wheelbarrow race, who can jump the highest, and the cupcake toss. These notorious events are what turn strangers into brothers. Johnson Hall and the 70 men who lived there became just that...brothers. The dorm was full of craziness and smelliness, but it was also full of spiritual growth and camaraderie. These young men have formed friendships that will last a lifetime. Johnson Hall was led by Residence Hall Supervisors Larry and Bev Olsen. The R.A.'s were Gideon Battis, Eli Karst, Matt Briggs, Will Chisam, Cameron Dunn, and Ethan Pope.

Issac Reppert takes time each week to get to know residents at Stonybrook Retirement Center.

Ashley Dulany, Korbin Schmidt, Rebekah Zwink and Jenette Follmer perform during dinner at Family Weekend.

Hannah Langley enjoyed her weekly visits and the opportunity to build relationships with the residents.

Jenette Follmer, Melanie Montgomery, Emma Swisher, Joyce Bruce, Jon Paden, and Sam Pinkerton enjoy their time driving to a church to perform.

Brooks Sutton and Jason Wilson enjoy hearing stories from Stonybrook Retirement Residents.

STUDENT LED MINISTRIES

There are many activities or ministries to be involved in on campus. Two of those ministries are Nursing Home and Drama Team. The Nursing Home team gathered every Thursday afternoon and visited Stoneybrook Retirement Center. The students play the piano, sing hymns, and lead a small devotion. They spend time and provide a listening ear to elderly people who may not receive many visitors. The Drama Team travels one weekend per month to churches to share the Good News of Jesus through drama. This year the Nursing Home team was led by Cameron Dunn and the Drama Team was led by Eli Karst.

Lauren Stroud helps as Kaitlyn Black shows off her accordion playing talent for the SSLC auction.

SPIRITUAL LIFE

Life is fun and exciting at Manhattan Christian College, but the most important goal for all of us is spiritual growth. There are a couple different avenues to help encourage this growth. The Student Spiritual Life Committee is one group that encouraged spiritual growth through morning Bible studies, worship nights, and the SSLC auction which raised money for students going on summer mission trips. Small groups were another great way to grow spiritually. Small groups were led by Juniors and Seniors who wanted to pour into the Freshmen and Sophomores and help them be successful and grow in their faith.

Lauren Wilson, Elizabeth McNeal, Lindsey Keller, Lauren Stroud, Robyn Kejr, Abby Baker, and Lindsay Bevan gather for an early morning Bible study.

Students gather at the end of the live auction to pray over those who will be serving in various ministries over the summer.

Veroinca Hernandez and Emmalie (Myers) Hurla are prepared for class to begin.

Michael Flenniken takes advantage of the library computers to research for a Bible class.

Ethan Pope, Dominic Puccio, Austin Jackson, Alex Blechle, Trevor Crawford, Tanner Woolf, and Collin Nitcher are prepared for Greek class.

Dominic Puccio and Elizabeth Fowler practice a song for Worship class.

Professor Jeff Sagstetter lectures to the students in his youth ministry class.

ACADEMICS

While we all enjoy all the fun extracurricular activities college has to offer, the real reason we are here is to receive an education. The mission of Manhattan Christian College is to educate, equip, and enrich Christian leaders and the students take this seriously by soaking up as much knowledge as they can from the professors. The faculty at MCC also stand behind this mission and provide the teaching and guidance that the students desire.

Horace Scott is happy to be working on a group project.

Hannah Langely, Elizabeth Fowler, Josh McCrickard, Lauren Wilson, Bri Engle and Alec Van Nort collaborate on a group project in Leadership.

Sterling Turner puts a shot up over the defense.
Will Chisam sets a screen so Matt Postlewait can drive towards the basket.

Fans trying to rumble up some noise during the game.
KJ Dobbins beats his Lincoln defender for an easy lay up.
Jacob Harper watches and waits for a teammate to get open.

Sage Ruis shoots a tough shot over two defenders.

The season started off rough but ended with a 6th place finish at the National Tournament. Senior Sage Ruis helped lead the Thunder and became the fifth player in history of MCC's basketball team to surpass the 2000-point mark. For the third time in program history, this Thunder team captured the Regional Championship by defeating Baptist Bible College by one point. The sixth place finish at Nationals is tied for the second best finish ever for MCC at the Division II National Tournament.

Catcher Michael Rice stops the ball

Michael Rice makes a good hit for a base hit.

Blake Clark catches a pop fly.
John Rumpson makes a double play.
John Nordquist connects with the ball.
Jordan Clark throws the heat.

Jacob Johansen pitches in the Concordia game.

The season didn't go the way the team and new Coach Kasey Guinty had hoped. The team continued to work hard and persevere through the season. Junior Ben Rankin shared, "It may not have been a season for the record books, but you can't replace competing with some really great guys." The team united together and played strong against tough NAIA schools.

"If you want a way to stay active, connected, have a good time, and be competitive, intramurals are the way to go."

David Frost

"Intramurals are the bomb!"

Paige Mortensen

Jacob Johansen, Will Chisam, and Micah Daniels await their chance to rebound the ball.

"Intramurals are a great way to bond with your friends and compete against your classmates. Whether you stay loyal to the same team, or just throw together a team, both are an enjoyable experience that provides a break from class work."

Matt Briggs

Tommy Stegmaier goes up big for a kill.
Kendall Reynolds passes the ball.
Lauren Sanders sets up Carrie Pilkington.
Kendall Reynolds dives to save the ball.

Intramural Volleyball Winners: Sarah Wenger, Lauren Sanders, Paige Mortensen, Carrie Pilkington, Daniel Southwell, Lonnie Penner, and David Frost.

Flag football Champions: Front Row: Matt Briggs. Middle Row: Kyle Sims, Ben Rankin, Tommy Stegmaier. Back Row: Cameron Dunn, David Frost, Will Chisam, Asa Lee.

Student Life would not be the same without intramurals. Ultimate frisbee, flag football, basketball, and volleyball were all played into the late hours of the night. Everyone gives it their all during these games in hopes of scoring the coveted intramural champion t-shirt. Sometimes these teams would be goofy, but other times they are very serious about what they do. All of the players and spectators are there because they simply love the game and want to play.

Sisters Brooke and Jaime Haas , celebrate receiving their diplomas.

COMMENCEMENT

Graduation day...a day these graduates have worked toward for several years. Several years of reading books, research papers, note taking, and tests. The graduates and attendees were challenged by Dr. Clark Tanner, an MCC alum, MCC board member and pastor at Countryside Christian Church to go and be. He challenged everyone with an MCC acrostic. M - Missional living...asking "God what is it you want me to do?" C - Committed...to whatever life purpose God has called you to. C - Calling...stay true to your calling.

Ethan Pope congratulates friend Joe Simon on a job well done.

Trenton Pittman, Tanner Bott and Bryce Birtell share the excitement of finishing their degrees.

Jolene Rupe celebrates daughter Kylie Rupe's graduation.

LEAD Graduate Matthew Jump receives a congratulatory handshake from President Kevin Ingram.

The Graduates move their tassles to commemorate their graduation.

Lead Graduate Jolene Keck pauses on stage to show off her diploma.

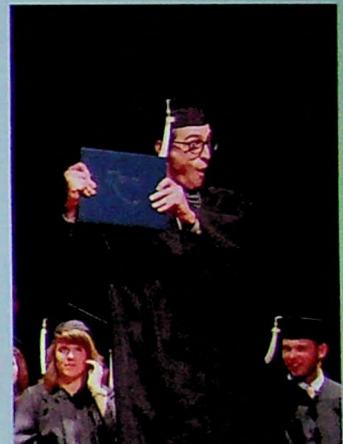

Kaitlyn Black expresses her excitement for graduation during the processional.

Paige Mortensen has the privilege of receiving her diploma from her Uncle, President Ingram.

Julia Nuebert, Robin Diehl, Tiffany Cleven, and Bryce Birtell sing.

Eric Hall is overjoyed with having his diploma in hand.

Krysten Purkey and Chloe Miller share a hug with their small group leader Nita Prickett.

College roommates and then colleagues.

Randy spent countless hours guiding students in which classes they should take.

Fall 2001: Randy Ingmire, Lori Jo Stanfield, President Ken Cable, John Poulsom, and Rick Wright.

Thank you for your exemplary leadership and service in the work of educating, equipping, and enriching Christian leaders.

I thank my God every time I remember you. In all my prayers for all of you, I always pray with joy because of your partnership in the gospel from the first day until now.

Philippians 1:3-5

RANDY'S FAREWELL

Randy Ingmire served as the VP for Academics and Academic Dean from June 2000-May 2015. As the tireless leader of the academic endeavors for 15 years, Mr. Ingmire was the perfect combination of personal and professional. Whether he was inside the classroom teaching, mentoring faculty, writing one of the three self-study reports, improving educational technology, or building strategic scholarly partnerships, Randy developed relationships that helped MCC move forward. With his oversight, four new degree programs were started: youth ministry, Biblical leadership, theological research, and ministry residency. Mr. Ingmire also led the transitions of numerous programs including music to worship, Christian education to spiritual formation and children's ministry, counseling to include chaplaincy. In addition, after a two-year review of the overall curriculum, it was completely restructured so that students could personalize their education with more than 270 different combination options. Throughout Randy's 15-year tenure almost 1,200 graduates became part of the MCC alumni family. Thank you for your energy, influence, and vision to help make MCC the best it can be.

At Randy's farewell, current and former faculty and staff gathered to pray blessings for Randy's new adventure.
